FRIDAY 17 JULY, 7.30 FOR 8.15 PM (EVENT 1)

LAUGHING CHILI COMEDY CLUB

The Laughing Chili Comedy Club brings a gaggle of acts (or should that be a giggle?) from the UK comedy circuit to Sunbury. Four unique comedians and one hilarious compere take to the stage to entertain comedy-lovers. Acts include stand-up, musical, sketch, and prop based comics and make for a great night of entertainment!

Please note this is an adult show with a minimum age of 16. There may be themes and language of an adult nature, including occasional swearing, so these shows are not for the meek and mild!

TICKETS £12 SHOULD BE PURCHASED FROM: www.laughingchili.co.uk, NOT FROM OUR NORMAL BOX OFFICE NUMBER.

SATURDAY 18 JULY, 8 PM (EVENT 2)

AMARATERRA: a selection of tunes and dances from Salento and Southern Italy

Amaraterra is the first ensemble in London to play pizzica – the traditional dance and music from Salento, the ‘heel’ of Italy. They bring alive a timeless musical treasure that still thrives and is enjoyed by locals and thousands of tourists alike in countless village festivals who join in to listen to the music and to dance.

TICKETS £10

SUNDAY 19 JULY, 3 PM (EVENT 3)

THE DAVID WAY STRING TRIO

David Way viola, Gavin Jones violin, Andrew Taylor cello

Beethoven’s String Trio No 1, Op 3 in E-flat major forms part of a suite of trios that are masterly in form and content, and among the most significant works of the genre. To follow, Gavin and Andrew will perform Jean-Baptiste Breval, excerpts from 6 Airs Variés for Violin and Cello, Op 9. To complete the recital, David will perform J.S.Bach’s Cello Suite No 2 on the viola.

THE RECITAL WILL BE FOLLOWED BY A CREAM TEA

TICKETS £10

TUESDAY 21 JULY, 8 PM (EVENT 4)

DR JOHNSON AND HIS DICTIONARY with Tim Moorey

Tim Moorey, aka Mephisto of The Sunday Times crossword, returns to give us another of his knowledgeable talks about Dr Johnson who wrote his Dictionary of the English Language, published in 1755, and described as ‘one of the greatest single achievements of English scholarship’.

FRIDAY 24 JULY, 8 PM (EVENT 8)

ALIVE TO TELL THE STORY

A Musical

This is a resurrection musical drama written by Susie Hare. It tells of the last days of Jesus’ life on earth, his crucifixion and subsequent resurrection. The story is told through the words of Lazarus who, having died and lain for four days in his tomb, had been brought back to life by Jesus. This performance is organised through the Sunbury Methodist Church with their Director, Reverend Victoria Davidson, with her wonderful team of actors and musicians.
